What is Directory Information?

Under the provisions of the federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), colleges may disclose information about a student designated as “directory information.” This information can, by law, be released to the general public and may be listed in the campus directory. SUNY Cobleskill Ag & Tech has designated the following as directory information:

- Student Name
- Campus, local and home addresses
- Phone Number
- Major
- Department
- Dates of Attendance
- Dates of Graduation
- Degrees Awarded
- Awards
- Full-time/Part-time Status
- Email Address
- Photo ID

No other student information is released to non-university personnel without written permission.

In compliance with the federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), SUNY Cobleskill Ag & Tech will not release non-directory student information to a third party (including parents, legal guardians, spouses, or corporate sponsors) without written consent of the student. It is campus policy not to release certain information regarding student records (e.g. grades, GPA) over the phone.

Mid-term and final grades are only available via Banner Web. An academic transcript may only be released by request of the student.
