

Estimated Cost
$3,500-$3,900

per participant (includes travel, lodging, in-state tuition, and fees)

$415 additional for out-of-state tuition

$500 deposit due upon acceptance
(rolling admission, 20 spots available)

Application Deadline
January 31st

SUMMER 2020

Agricultural Business Field Studies

GREECE

May 10th – 19th

AGBU 270 – 2 Academic Credits

Course Content: Discover the varied agricultural practices of northern Greece as you explore Greek culture, values and history. Hike Mount Olympus, tour local markets, take cooking classes and dance lessons, and set sail around Halkidiki. This course is hosted in Thessaloniki by the American Farm School (Perrotis College).

Trip Highlights: Walking tours of Thessaloniki, Ana Poli and Edessa, Ali Microbrewery, Mpekas Family Farm, Ktima Gerovassiliou Winery, Souroti Bottling Company, and local peach farms.

Participating Faculty: Sophie Ano, Jason Evans, and Stephen Weir

For More Information & To Apply

internationaleducation@cobleskill.edu

518.255.5556 • Wheeler Hall 216

Program costs, including those advertised here, are subject to change without notice due to factors beyond SUNY Cobleskill's control, including changes in exchange rates and international airfares.

SUNY Cobleskill
International Education