ARTICLE XIII: RECOGNITION OF ORGANIZATIONS HAVING STUDENT MEMBERS

§ 1 Student Government Association can recognize organizations that may use the name of the State University of New York or the College; for purposes of identification, obtaining organizational privileges to use College facilities, resources, and services, imply college sponsorship, or approval of activities.

§ 2 SGA may establish criteria consistent with college policy to recognize student groups and to provide financial support from the Student Activity fee. This criteria is subject to yearly review by SGA and no student organization will be recognized without approval.

§ 3 Each organization that is recognized by SGA may determine criteria for membership while complying with state and federal law. No organization shall discriminate in the acceptance of members or assignment of voting privileges, rank, or office on the basis of race, sex, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, age, disability or handicap, marital status, or previous affiliations. Although involuntary acceptance of members will not be required as evidence, the names, purposes, and procedures of organizations must reflect this equality of opportunity. Local units of national, state, or regional organizations must be free to select individual members among those qualified; outside approval is prohibited.

§ 4 Each group applying for SGA recognition must agree to uphold the regulations of the College and the State University of New York. Application for recognition or renewal of recognition must include the following information: a statement of organization’s purpose, membership requirements, sources of income and record of organization’s monies, list of current officers, name of faculty or staff advisor or approved substitute, and organization's constitution or by-laws. Failure to keep current credentials compliant with College or SGA regulations will result in the loss of recognition. See Club Charter Process and Active Club Bylaw.

- § 5 Hazing, defined as the deliberate imposition of unusual stress on a student as a matter of formal or informal ritual, is illegal in New York State in connection with initiations or at any other time. Organizations responsible for incidents of hazing will lose SGA recognition, be excluded from the use of college resources, and may be subject to discipline under the Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order on the premises of the State University of New York and criminal prosecution under Penal Law 120.17.

ARTICLE XIV: RATIFICATION

- § 1 This constitution shall be ratified by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the SGA.
- § 2 This Constitution shall become effective upon ratification. Representatives and officers elected under the previous constitution will retain offices but operate under the provisions of this Constitution. Upon ratification, this Constitution shall replace and supersede all previous constitutions.

ARTICLE XV: OPERABILITY

- § 1 If any provision of this constitution shall be adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such adjudication shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of the document.
